

The Kathleen C. Wright Education and Life Development Center is the home to the various programs sponsored by the Delta Education and Life Development Foundation, Inc. (DELDF) and our partner Broward County Alumnae Chapter Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. (BCAC). The center is named in honor of Kathleen C. Wright, the first African-American elected to the Broward County School Board. The center affectionately called "The Delta House" is home to dynamic programs and service including mentoring, literacy enhancement, scholar development, physical and mental health support, legal and financial awareness.

The Delta House serve's as a symbol of DELDF's and BCAC's commitment to the community.

Like anything, the house must be maintained and upgraded. Currently the Delta House is in great need of love and attention so that high quality programs can continue to be offered to the community in a welcoming and safe environment.

Please join us on this journey to strengthen, broaden and deepen our ability to better serve the community.
