YOUTH ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Buy a personalized brick to be part of Jeffy's Field forever.

Help maintain and improve this landmark youth baseball diamond in New Market, MD.

About the field.

Jeffy's Field was built and dedicated in 2015 in memory of Jeff Hayek, a smiley red-headed 10-year-old who played for LOUYAA and loved baseball. It is a very special field, where kids can be excited to learn and play the game. The field is the centerpiece of LOUYAA Park complex in Jeff's hometown of New Market, MD.

Be part of the legacy.

Each personalized brick will be inlaid in the walkway directly behind the backstop of the field. Inscribe the brick with the name of your young player, your family or business name, or a tribute of your choosing. You'll not only be part of the field, but you'll help improve and maintain the field.
