

Leave your mark on the future of West Plains Baseball and Softball! The West Plains Area Dugout Club invites you to become part of the exciting Dirt to Diamonds project by purchasing your own personalized brick. Celebrate your family, promote your business, or honor the heroes who serve our community and protect our freedoms—your engraved brick will become a lasting part of this historic development.

Entirely funded by private donations and community support, this project will create a vibrant, family-friendly gathering place for collegiate sports in West Plains. Join us in building something that will inspire athletes and families for generations to come. Claim your spot in West Plains history today!
