

Are you looking for a meaningful way to commemorate a birthday, anniversary, special event or honor the memory of a loved one? By purchasing a brick to be placed in our Tribute Garden, you can honor a person or life event while supporting Via’s services that ensure people reach their full potential through a rewarding career, an enriching community life and meaningful relationships.

Please fill out the order form on this page and choose what you’d like included on your personalized brick.

Please note that it could take us several months to place the bricks in our garden due to potential weather conditions or other factors.
