

The Bradford Lot in Kingston, Massachusetts, is a place of profound historical significance. Part of the original land grant to Governor William Bradford of Plymouth Colony, it preserves the site of the home of his son, Major William Bradford, and has served as a place of remembrance for generations. Since being deeded to the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants in 1897, the Society has been committed to preserving this treasured property and honoring the enduring legacy of the Bradford family.

Today, you can become part of that legacy. Proceeds from the Commemorative Brick Walkway will help enhance and preserve the Bradford Lot through the creation of a beautifully landscaped memorial walkway and bench for visitors to enjoy. By purchasing an engraved brick, you will create a lasting tribute to your family, honor a loved one, or commemorate your Mayflower heritage while helping ensure this historic site is preserved for future generations.
